In blow the winds of justice for, The broken and the promised.

A (D) G (D)
We've been waiting longer than a lifetime.

A (D) G (D)
The weak will call upon the Lord, His work – never finished.

A (D) G
We give His goodness and we carry their cries.

(D) A (D) G (D) A (D) G
For God so loved the world. For God so loved the world.

(D) A (D) G F#m Em G A
For God so loved the world, He loved.

We sing the song for everyone
Who's ever been betrayed.
Let the dust blow off your feet, and walk away.

For freedom waits beyond our shame.
It's hard to explain it.
We leave the answer to the One who gave.

For God so loved the world. For God so loved the world.
For God so loved the world, He loved.

He takes our tears and makes the rain,
Not a drop is wasted.
Every flower placed on earth, to brighten our day.

For God so loved the world. For God so loved the world.
For God so loved the world, He loved.
