YOU'RE HEALING ME

Joey Daddario & Jeanie Scheff

G Em

All I have is yours.

G Em

Each breath heals me more.

D D

I was the scattered seed that could not grow,

C

Until you helped me push my way back home.

You have brought me back From my dark and lonely past. I left a lot of me in bad places, Along the dead end streets and sad faces.

CHORUS: G

You're Healing Me

Em

In places no one sees.

G

You're Healing Me

Em

With every word you speak.

My pain melts away.

Only love remains.

You were writing on my heart for years.

The story from your hand now crystal clear.

BRIDGE: C

You loved me too much to watch me fall.

Em

You're my station. You're my all in all,

C Am D My strength to go on.
